

Flute Lesson Policy

Attendance Policy

- I want to start by expressing my enthusiasm for working with your child and helping them grow musically. As we begin our lessons together, I want to take a moment to discuss my lesson policies.

As per industry standards and in accordance with music schools, I would like to kindly remind you that lesson payments are due on a monthly basis. When you enroll your child in lessons, you reserve a specific time slot in my schedule, and I commit to being in my studio ready to work with your child.

In order to ensure that we make the most of our time together, I appreciate it when you notify me in advance of any conflicts that may arise. This allows us to work together to schedule a make-up lesson or swap with another student, if possible.

By communicating openly and respectfully, we can work together to provide the best possible experience for your child. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to reach out.

- My lesson policy is: Lessons missed due to student absence or cancellation will need to be rescheduled and that I know in advance of lessons as much as possible. This way we can reschedule your lesson on the lesson make up days or swap with another student.
- How I understand this might be a bit different. I care deeply about my time with your student. So when you have a conflict please make sure I know so that I am able to work with you on a lesson make-up or a lesson swap with another student.
- Lessons cancelled by the teacher will be rescheduled at a mutually agreed-upon time or the lesson will be prorated for the following month's billings.

Commitment Period

- The commitment period is from September 7, 2025, to June 30, 2026.
- Parents/Guardians agree to pay for 4 lessons per month for the duration of the contract.
- Summer lesson schedules will be based on your availability and times offered in the flute studio. They will be scheduled by the end of May for July and August.
